

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., March 8, 1877.—10:30 a. m.—For the Middle and Eastern States falling barometer, increasing easterly, veering to high southerly winds, stationary or higher temperatures, cloudy or rainy weather.

CONFERENCE NOTES.—The meetings of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the M. E. Church South continue to attract large numbers of visitors, and last night and to-day a number of additional ministers and delegates arrived. More are still expected.

The membership of the conference embraces about 212 ministers and 35 lay delegates, of whom about 200 are now in the city.

There are sixteen applicants for admission into the conference, and their applications will be acted upon between now and Sunday, when the ordinations will be held.

The subject of the proposed division of the conference will come up at this session, but the opinion seems to prevail that the proposition to divide will be negatively by a large majority. The conference now has jurisdiction over all the country from Lewistown, W. Va., to Harford county, Md., and from the Rappahannock river to the Alleghany mountains.

The M. E. Church South was crowded to overflowing last night to hear a sermon from the Rev. Synlar Ferguson. Rev. J. T. Smith, also preached last night at Robert's Chapel, colored.

To-night Rev. Dr. Stead, of the Virginia Conference, will preach in the M. E. Church South. Rev. Dr. Poissal in the M. E. Church, and Rev. J. S. Hutchinson in Robert's Chapel, colored.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge E. M. Lowe presiding.—Wells in vs. Adams et al.; chancery; decree of reference.

Watkins vs. Young et al.; in chancery; replication to amended answer of Virginia Young filed.

Hoff's administrator vs. Hoff et al.; in chancery; report of Commissioner Wattles confirmed.

Boyd et ux. vs. Alexander; in chancery; decree of reference to Commission, and appointing a Receiver.

The will of Edward C. Fletcher was admitted to probate.

Kemper and David A. Lowe qualified and gave bond as Notaries Public.

Geo. A. Minshaws was appointed administrator of D. D. Gould, deceased.

Court adjourned until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

LADIES' UNION RELIEF.—The kindly liberality of many of our citizens, distributed through the Ladies' Union Relief, has been the means of relieving and averting much suffering during the past winter, and in closing the active work of the Society, we beg, in behalf of the poor, to return our hearty thanks for the aid that has been extended to them.

The following is an approximate statement of receipts and distributions for the winter: Money received into the treasury, $695 40; goods purchased—597 yards calico, 297 yards cotton, 127 yards flannel, and 25 counters; 63 pairs of shoes, 11 tons of coal, and 6 cords of wood.

In addition to these there have been distributions of groceries to each family every Wednesday.

The Society adjourned to meet on the first Wednesday in December next.

By order of Board of L. U. R.

POTOMAC FRUIT GROWERS.—There will be a "city picnic" and social reunion of the members of the Potomac Fruit Growers' Association, the Woodland Farmer's Club, and some invited guests, at the rooms of the Board of Trade, in Washington, on Tuesday next, on which occasion the newly elected officers of the Fruit Growers will be installed. An honorary member will be presented with a suitable testimonial, to be followed by a picnic collation served from a common table, and short addresses, poems, readings, etc., interspersed with vocal music and piano accompaniments.

IMMIGRATION MEETING.—A meeting of senators, representatives and other prominent officials and citizens of Virginia was called to meet at the Metropolitan Hotel, in Washington, at five o'clock this evening. The object of the meeting is to complete arrangements for sending an agent to England in the interests of immigration. It is held under the auspices of the Rappahannock and Potomac Immigration Society, of which Gen. Fitz Lee is president and Col. Addison Bost, of Fredericksburg, secretary.

POLICE NEWS.—Complaint was made at police headquarters last night, that a colored girl named Mary Carter had stolen a shawl belonging to her grandmother, and was secreted in a house of ill-fame kept by a negro woman named Mary Thornton, on the corner of Henry and Cameron streets. A warrant was issued and the police raided on the premises, capturing the female inmates and eight negro men, all of whom were locked up in the station house and had a hearing before the Mayor this morning, who fined and discharged them.

THE FISHERIES.—The fish packers and salers are cleaning out their houses at P. Fish and the staging around the wharf is being put down. The restaurants and eating booths are also cleaning up and will be open in a few days. The fishermen are also getting ready for the season and several outfits have already been sent down. The idea seems to prevail that the fishery of 1877 is to prove a successful one.

ISSUANCE.—A white man named Mike Travis was brought to the Mayor's office, this morning, on suspicion of insanity, and was locked up for further examination. He will probably be sent to the Alms House for medical treatment. Travis, who is said to have had several attacks of insanity heretofore, was a former Confederate soldier.

IMPROVING.—Mr. P. C. Thompson, who was accidentally wounded in the foot, on Monday night last, as heretofore mentioned in the Gazette, has been suffering intense pain, and it has been necessary to keep him under the influence of opiates most of the time. He was somewhat easier this morning, and his condition was believed to be improving.

NEW CORN PLANTER.—Mr. J. Dix Mills has perfected and had on exhibition at the Commercial Exchange building, this morning, a corn planter and checker, which he says will do the work of nine horses and fifteen men. Many of the merchants were present and witnessed its workings, and expressed their lives as being much pleased.

LAND SALE.—The Gordonsville Gazette says: "The lands of Col. John Willis were offered for sale at public auction last week. For the Oakburn tract of 458 acres the highest bid was $26 per acre, and the lands were withdrawn."

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.—The District Orange of Northern Virginia resumed its session at 4 p. m. yesterday, and, after transacting some routine business, which was not much public, the meeting adjourned.

NEW GOODS.—Mr. Henry Strauss is receiving and opening, at his bazaar, on King street, a large collection of gentlemen's furnishing goods.

(SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The republican members of the Senate to-day concluded the appointment in the committees as far as their side is concerned, and the list, it is understood, has been handed to the democrats to allow them to fill in the blanks, so that it is likely the standing committees will be announced to-morrow.

As to the Cabinet, it seems to be conceded that notwithstanding the opposition on the part of Cameron, Blaine, Morton, Cookling and a few others, all the nominees will be confirmed, and it is now said that Sherman will "go through" to-day. It is not positively known how the democrats will vote, but it would seem to be the part of wisdom for them to vote for confirmation, even if they have to swallow Sherman, who, it is said, will sustain the President's conciliatory policy, which is doubtful.

Spencer, from Alabama, last occupied an hour this morning in reading and having read a revamped "bloody shirt" "rigmarole," to which no one paid the remotest attention, and he had concluded a little time before it was known that he was through. Morton then read some extracts from radical sources to show that blood had flowed like water in Alabama, by which thousands of republicans had been deterred from voting, &c., &c., the same old story, but wound up by asserting that he could not stultify his record by voting against Mr. Morgan's admission to his seat, and consequently without an aye and no vote Mr. M. was escorted to the President's desk by Gen. Gordon and there sworn in, and—makes one more democratic vote.

Upon a motion to seat Grover Mr. Cookling took occasion to vindicate his vote for refusing Kellogg's certificate and for voting for seating Grover. He also took occasion to eulogize Gen. Grant and give Blaine a thrust on this point. He also vindicated the action of the Electoral Commission, and contended that Kellogg had never been recognized anywhere as Governor of Louisiana, and had not even been certified as to the vote of that State. He then read from the President's inaugural address that part in relation to local governments in the South, and argued that the President intended to find out who was truly elected in Louisiana, and again gave those who show signs of disaffection on his side a severe rebuke for trying to thwart the Executive in his high and patriotic mission. He contended that the Oregon and Louisiana cases were not in any particular similar.

Mr. Morton could not rest under the blows struck by Cookling, and followed Cookling, insisting that Kellogg was as much entitled to his seat as Grover.

The galleries and floor of the Senate have been crowded all day, and during Mr. Cookling's speech special attention was given.

SENATE.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock, when after prayer and the reading of the Journal Mr. Spencer from Ala., assisted by the clerk, read a speech, occupying about an hour, upon affairs in Alabama, charging intimidation, fraud, &c., resulting as a consequence, in the sending of Mr. John B. Morgan to the U. S. Senate, whose admission Spencer accordingly opposed, or at least was so understood, for no one paid the slightest attention to the reading—indeed so great was the explosion on the floor that the presiding officer had several times to call for order, an unusual occurrence in the Senate, when a member is speaking.

Mr. Morton followed Spencer, reading from a radical report of the late election in Alabama. Morton has fraud and violence on the brain—indeed it would seem that it was his only stock in trade. Nevertheless he declared that he would not stultify himself or so violate his views of the law as to vote against Mr. Morgan's admission to his seat.

Mr. Blaine then took the floor, and smarting under Mr. Bayard's thrusts, given him yesterday, took up Mr. Bayard's votes in the Electoral Commission, to show that Mr. B. voted as a partisan all the time and with few and rare exceptions, when no decisive result was involved.

Mr. Bayard did not design a reply but treated the Senator with silent contempt and a smile. Other resolutions to admit Mr. Morgan were then adopted, and he was accordingly sworn in.

A motion to admit Grover, of Oregon, called to his feet Mr. Cookling, who explained the difference between the Oregon and Louisiana cases, and vindicated his vote for referring Kellogg's credentials.

Mr. Morton, at 2:30, took the floor to reply.

LATER.

After further debate, principally on Louisiana affairs, Grover was admitted and sworn in. The Senate then went into executive session.

Political.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The World's Washington dispatch says there was a conference at the White House, last night, at which Mr. Evans, Stanley Matthews, Mr. Schurz and other friends of the President were present.

The extraordinary action of the Senate, in deferring the confirmation of the new cabinet was variously discussed. The President expressed great astonishment. He had not anticipated a unanimous approval of the selection, but at the same time he thought that they met the approval of the greater portion of the Senate. He added that he should adhere to the nominations as he had made them, and that the Senate could pursue its own course in the matter. That he had laid down the policy he intended to pursue and he should carry it into effect. If the new cabinet was not confirmed this week he said he should proceed in co-operation with the old cabinet and issue orders for the withdrawal of troops from Southern States.

The Herald says: We vouch for President Hayes no further than he has gone, but up to this time he deserves approval alike for his steadiness and his dignity. His proposed cabinet is right if his inaugural address was right. The one must be judged by the other. Nobody has attempted to show that the proposed cabinet is not in harmony with the address.

The Tribune says President Hayes begins well. His selection of Cabinet officers sustains and illustrates his inaugural as that paper sustains the promises of his letter of acceptance.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WINE AND CURE.—The unprecedented success of Spear's Wine in New and South America and Europe has gained for it among the medical faculty a standing reputation. Chemists and scientific men have visited his cellars in New Jersey, and analyzed his Wine, and pronounced it the most healthily and beneficial in the market. The following letter was received by Mr. Spear from Dr. A. D. Wilson, one of the oldest and most celebrated physicians of New York city: "I have been in the habit of using Spear's Port Grape Wine and have found it an excellent stomachic, a gentle stimulant and tonic. It is especially useful in cases of great nervous debility and stomach weakness. The disposition of unprincipled dealers to adulterate wines has compelled Mr. Spear to bottle all his productions and place his signature over the cork so as to insure to the public its purity. It is being used by the most fashionable families to hand around with cake at evening entertainments."
